Dear All

6 March 2015

World Book Day; visit from Lord Lieutenant Sue Snowdon

World Book Day this year was extra special, as it began with a visit from the Lord Lieutenant – Sue Snowdon. Mrs. Snowdon knows the school well – as she was previously a senior member of the teaching staff a number of years ago at Chilton Infants School.

Further information on the work of the Lord Lieutenant can be found on her website:-

The annual World Book Day character parade officially started the day with children from across the school dressed as book characters – and some dressed specifically as character from David Walliams books. There was a fantastic range of outfits on display, reflecting a hugely broad range of fictional reading books – old and new. A huge thanks to all parents and friends who helped to make the costumes such a success. Mrs. Snowdon presented prizes to the winners, who were as follows:-

Ratburger Lunch

A very big ‘thank you’ to the kitchen staff and Taylor Shaw for organising our themed World Book Day lunch. Parents should not be concerned – as the burgers were 100% organic beef from Bowes, rather than 100% rodent!

Year 6 visit from Hannah Earnshaw – Mars One Project

Y6 were lucky enough to have a visit from Hannah on Monday this week. She talked about her involvement in the Mars One Project and answered the students’ very searching questions! A report to follow next week.

Year 4 Educational Visit to Segedunum, Wallsend

On Tuesday, Year 4 enjoyed a wonderful day at the Roman Fort of Segedunum as part of their themed cross-curricular study. A report from the children will appear here next week.

Solar Panels

School is shortly to have solar panels installed in order to reduce the financial burden of utility costs on the school budget. In addition, we will be contributing positively to the Green Agenda – something that the pupil Eco-Club is very proud of. Details to follow as they become available.

Chilton Gala Committee

They will be holding a film and slide show presentation about the important local archaeological site (Binchester Roman Fort) and the plans for its future development. This will take place on Saturday 7 Mach at 1.00pm in The Wheatsheaf. There will be refreshments, tombola and raffle. All proceeds from the event will go into the Chilton Gala Fund to help pay for this year's event on 1st August.
